WELCOME

Paul & Marie Lehmann

This semester I am teaching Cross-Cultural Communications via Skype to six students. I teach for two hours, then I mentor a student for 1/2 an hour. Over the weeks I rotate through all of the students. I am thankful that this class is still included in the curriculum because it presents necessary communication principles. We want our students to be effective communicators, especially as they seek to share the gospel with Muslims.

I plan to go to Pakistan again from March 29- April 17 to teach a class, Christian Counseling, with two ladies (Saba & Qamar) who got their Masters in Counseling from ZBS. Since they have gone through the counseling program, I have asked them to lead, and I will be there to support. Thankfully, I have already received my Pakistani visa and purchased my plane tickets. In the meantime, we continue to connect with refugees here in Salem and seek to be the light of Christ to them.

Since Marie's heart attack and stroke five years ago, we have taken a short vacation in February to celebrate Marie's life. Through the kindness of some friends, we are going this year to Redmond, Oregon. We are looking forward to that time. When I go to Pakistan, Marie plans to visit her sister, Miriam, in Idaho for a week.

- Pray that my students will learn and practice effective communication skills.
- Praise God with us for Marie's health and out time away together to celebrate.
- Please pray for my trip to Pakistan.
