On Your Own: Better With Others

1. How does Jesus' baptism reveal Him as the Son of God? Why did Jesus need to be baptized?
2. How does the Spirit still work to testify about Jesus? Where do we see the Spirit working in the world?
3. What is the connection between believing that God's testimony about His Son is true and faith "in" Jesus? How can you live daily with faith "in" Jesus?
4. What are the qualities of eternal life? How can our lives now on earth begin to reflect the reality of the eternal life we have?

Garrett & Jessica Berk

Things are officially ramping up for a sprint to the finish of the school year with Campus Ambassadors! Wednesday May 1st, we were invited to participate in the annual Cinco De Mayo club fair at Chemeketa. Our table was among the more popular ones, as we handed out delicious, fresh made Mexican pastries to anyone who answered our poll question. (Remember, the fastest way to a student's soul is through their stomach :) We were blessed to make some amazing new connections, including a Muslim student from India, who is planning to join us for discipleship group on Mondays, and then discuss questions of the faith over lunch afterwards. Please pray that she would feel loved and welcomed by the community, and that God would guide my words and heart in our conversation. In addition, please pray the other non-Christians with whom I have started meeting weekly, including a Wiccan. Our first several meetings have been great, as she has put together an extensive list of questions for me to address. Those questions include, among others:

1. "Do Christians actually believe they're eating the body and blood of Christ?"
2. "How is it fair to sin your whole life, then repent right at the end and still be saved?"
3. "Why is Jesus always portrayed as a white male? Also, if he himself created men and women, then what is he, and if he is a man then he didn't create them."
4. "How do you defend the fact that the Bible is full of genocide, rape, slavery, and blood sacrifices?"
5. "Why are so many churches rich raking in profits?"

Please pray for continued dialogue and trust, and for our wonderful female students to come alongside her in Christlike love. Also pray for our whole student leadership team, as we begin casting vision and planning for the summer and the year ahead. Thank you all so much!
