Questions for Further Discussion:

(Great for Life Groups, family devotionals, or with a friend)

1. What is the difference between planning for the future in ways that are wise and ways that are sinful?
2. How can greed bind us to material realities and blind us to spiritual realities? Where have you seen this struggle show up in your own life?
3. Why are sins of omission so much easier to overlook than sins of commission? What commands of scripture do you have a tendency to ignore?
4. Why do times of struggle tend to make us more likely to grumble and argue? How can you make an effort to pursue unity with others even when you're facing trials?
5. How does confidence in God's mercy and compassion help us with endurance? When have you worried about an outcome only to see that God's plans were good?
