

A Weary World Rejoices – First Sunday of Advent
The Fulfillment of Hope – John 1:1-14

Pastor JD Winters – Sunday, November 30, 2025

For a world weary of _____, there is hope when God _____.

For a world weary of _____, there is hope because _____ is found in Jesus.

For a world weary of _____, there is hope in the _____.

For a world weary from the burden of _____, there is hope in the fullness of _____.

For a world weary of being _____ to, there is hope in the fullness of _____.

For a world weary of _____, there is hope in rebirth into God's _____.

A weary world rejoices because Jesus, the fulfillment of our hope, is _____.

Questions for Further Discussion:

(Great for Life Groups, family devotionals, or with a friend)

1. What in life makes you feel weary? When you feel that way, what do you hope for?
2. How is what we hope in sometimes different than the true hope that God provides? How is his provision better?
3. What does it mean that Jesus was "full of grace and truth"?
In what seasons of life do you need to remember his grace?
In which seasons do you need to stand on his truth?
4. How are darkness and loneliness in opposition to hope?
How is Jesus the solution to those things?
5. How does the fulfillment of hope at Jesus's first coming help us to maintain hope as we await His return?