Questions for Further Discussion:

(Great for Life Groups, family devotionals, or with a friend)

1. How would you define the difference between happiness and joy? What are your most common sources of each?
2. What happens to someone if their source of joy is something that is temporary or fleeting?
3. What promises of God are you so confident in that they can be a solid foundation for your joy?
4. During the Advent season, which parts of Christmas bring you the most joy? What about Jesus' first coming resonates most with you?
5. What does it mean to have our joy be in our salvation? What does it mean that our joy is to be in our Savior? Are these the same thing or slightly different? How?
